

Group size:	1+
Fitness level:	Moderate
Best Season:	All year Round

Trip Introduction

Dhulikhel Full Day Tour – (The Top of the hill – A Center point of Attraction): The astounding snow fed mountains seen from Dhulikhel must be one of the best all encompassing perspectives on the planet.

At the point, when a blue dimness covers the lower segment of the mountains, they appear to drift noticeable all around. With the snowy-capped mountains on the scenery, Dhulikhel is a phase of tremendous magnificence and a heaven for the traveler. Green slopes and some transformed into wonderfully cut rural farms take into account the spectators' pleasure.

In the wake of going through morning here with a comfortable breakfast at inn, we trek to Nagarkot from where we get got to Kathmandu.

Dhulikhel Municipality is a major part of the Kathmandu Valley Cultural Trekking Trail. This five-day trail provides a short trek with himalayas in the background and passes showcases a number of cultural highlights and rich biodiversity. Visits to hill stations like Chisapani, Nagarkot along with Dhulikhel will be less challenging than going to himalayas routes but with equal thrill and rewards. Dhulikhel municipality is one of the starting or the middle points for hiking routes. These include walks to Panauti, Kavre village, Opi village as well as to Hazaar Sindhi all of which take as long as a half day. A longer walking route includes trail to Nagarkot and Namobuddha. The Municipality also forms one of the points for Mountain Biking with challenging terrains as well as the site of people with rich ethnic culture and the scenery of mountain ranges along the way. Routes include Dhulikhel-Panauti, Dhulikhel-Khopasi, Dhulikhel-Palanchowk-Dhulikhel, Dhulikhel-Namobuddha-Dhulikhel.

Kali Temple (Religious as well as Touristic Site)

One can also do activities like bird and butterfly watching from various points in Dhulikhel Municipality. Hazaar Sindhi stands out as the place, including Thulochaur Kavre, and Gosaikunda forest in the vicinity areas there as many as 72 species of birds (60% residents and 35% migratory) can be sighted.

A scene during Dashain in the Bhagwati Jatra

Dhulikhel has been for centuries an important trading centre on the commercial route linking Nepal to Tibet. Since time immemorial, people of Nepal travel to Tibet to bring home salt and gold. Likewise, the Tibetans every year with their flocks of sheep enter into Nepal during Dashain, the greatest Hindu festival. They use to purchase chilies and other daily necessities in Nepal and return to their homeland. In those days, a whole day walk from Kathmandu to Dhulikhel was comfortable for Tibet trippers with easily available of food and water at Dhulikhel at the evening for overnight stay. After adjoining with Tibet by motorable road in 1965, Dhulikhel got a face lift and developed as a tourist destination. Dhulikhel is an ideal station to stop for overnight stay while going to Tibet and coming back to Kathmandu.

For more info about Dhulikhel Full Day Tour, Plesae CONTACT\_US

Outline Itinerary

- 01 :Pick up early morning from your Hotel to Dhulikhel